• Case No.
• 1:12-cr-00006-CG-B
• 1:18-cr-00105-CG-B

MOTION TO FACILITATE HARDSHIP

Comes Now the defendant Freddy Paul Foreman, (herein after Foreman or Defendant) pro se' and in Absentia with this MOTION. Pleading by pro se' litigants are read more liberally than those drafted by Attorney's (Osahar. V. United States Postal Office Service 297 Fed. Approx 863.864, 11th Circuit 2008.)

In addition pro se' pleadings are held to less stringent standard than pleadings prepared by Attorney's and will therefore be liberally construed (Tannenbaum v. United States F. 3d 1262, 1263 11th Circuit 1998.)

Hereby Defendant respectfully request that this Honorable Court will take into consideration that the defendant was held in the county Jail for 4 months after sentenced by this Honorable Court Due to the Covid 19 Pandemic, which precluded the Defendant from the opportunity of participation in Productive Activities and Programming for Rehabilitation which the Defendant would have been eligible to participate absent the Pandemic. Thus relinquishing Defendant of Approx 40-60 days credit due to Programming and 180-240 days of Home Confinement of his sentence coinciding with the First Step Act.

The Defendant Respectfully Request this Honorable Court find this Hardship Dutifully Warranted a Commute 40-60 days credited to the defendant 180-240 days of Defendants Sentence to Home Confinement

DONE this 23rd of <sup>month</sup> July

Respectfully Submitted
Truckly Paul Foreman
